Winter and Summer, Day and Night, A Cog,

Feeling a deep sense of responsibility as the sole chroniclers of important events in the lives of a multitude of students and faculty, the 1936 Trojan staff presents the fruit of a year's work. An earnest attempt has been made to accurately portray each happening, minor or major.

If our volume meets with the readers' approval, the labor is well repaid. If we have failed, we offer regrets, not excuses.

—The Editor.

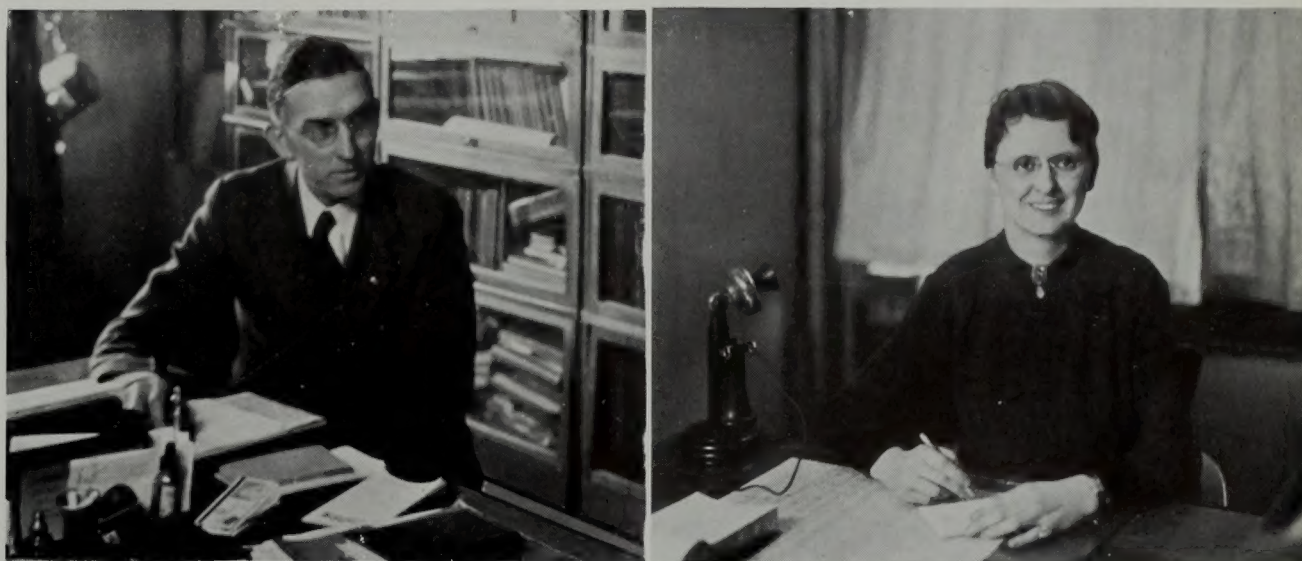

A collage of 12 black and white photographs showing various activities of students and faculty. The photos depict students working in a workshop, performing a play, standing in a line, working on a stage set, playing cards, climbing stairs, operating a control panel, sweeping, painting, and sitting at a long table in a cafeteria or classroom.

The "Open Sesame" To All Social Freedom

Prin. Dale,
Dean Felsted

Due to the untiring endeavor of Mr. C. Sherman Dale, the principal, Portsmouth High has been rated with other distinguished schools of Ohio and has maintained a position as one of the foremost schools of the district. Mr. Dale acquired his B. S. and M. A. degrees at the University of Illinois and is a graduate of the East Kentucky State Normal School at Richmond. Before coming to Portsmouth eight years ago, he was principal of the high school at Maysville, Ky., and at Champaign, Ill. He is also a member of Phi Delta Kappa Fraternity.

"A friend to all the girls" would be a fitting title for Mrs. Leona Wise Felsted, Dean of Girls and sponsor of the Girls' League and the Girls' Senior Honor Council. All excuses for the girls' absences are granted by her, and she strives to promote their welfare. In addition to this work she teaches biology for girls. Mrs. Felsted received her B. S. and M. A. degrees at Ohio State.

The Board of Education, the executive body of the school system, has successfully conducted the financial affairs of the school and has infallibly performed all tasks confronting them.

The members as seated below are: Frank Appel, Superintendent; Wesley Ridenour, Superintendent of Building; D. E. Gardner; Forrest Williams, President; William H. Hazlebeck, Secretary; Charles E. Hard; Earl Clayton; and Emma Cramer.

Miss Krall,
Mr. Leach

Binary Vanguard, Regnant Over The Outer Office

As secretary of the office, Miss Kathryn Krall has worked diligently and successfully. She answers all questions for students seeking information, and trains all the assistants in the office. Miss Krall graduated from Portsmouth High School in 1929 and has been Mr. Dale's secretary for the past three years.

In addition to his regular classes in stenography and business law, Mr. Bert Leach has performed the duties of assistant principal. He has charge of the absentees, the granting of excuses, and the filing of detention slips. His so-called "study" during the year was his attempt to discover the advantages of supervised study.

"Trusties" Of The School, "Jacks Of All Trades"

A position in the office is one of trust and responsibility.. The assistants in the principal's office carry out these qualities successfully.

Their duties vary. They run errands, write admittance slips for tardy students, check the list of absentees from classes and study halls, make out daily absence lists and deliver them to all rooms, and call wanted students to the office.. Typing reports, handling grade sheets, and running the mimeograph machine are also included in their work.

Girls' Dean
Assistants

Typists, Librarians, Even Florence Nightingales

The work of Dean Felsted's assistants includes nursing as well as business. They have such tasks as giving first aid from the contents of the medicine cabinet and keeping the rest rooms orderly and clean. They do a considerable amount of typing for the Dean and the committees, and take care of all the books belonging to the Board of Education and reports on them. They are efficient messengers for the Dean, and trek many lengths of the corridors a day.

Comptrollers Of Scholastic Financial Matters

The Accounting office is the "bank" of P. H. S. All the funds belonging to the sundry activities and clubs are carefully deposited by Mr. Kegley and his assistants. When pecuniary situations arise, money is secured through this staff by means of an invoice "ok'd" by the sponsor. An unbelievably large sum is accounted during the year, and the work is large in proportion. The musical organizations, with their contest trips to finance, the Trojan, making large and small inroads on their reserve, the Echo, changing figures bi-weekly, athletics, buying much equipment, selling many tickets, the class funds and the general fund are only a few of the accounts balanced in this office.

The organization embodying self-government in P. H. S. is the Student Council, consisting of the Home Room representatives elected by their class-mates. Meetings are held every Monday afternoon under the supervision of Mr. Dale, who makes announcements which the advisory presidents convey to their fellow-students Tuesday at one o'clock.

The members are divided into committees, which include movie, assembly, athletic, music, visitor and dramatic. The council sponsored special speakers, movies and other entertainment, among which Mr. Zimmerman, who gave an illustrated talk on deep-sea life, Leon Albert, who spoke about Venezuela, and a movie showing the history of Washington's railroad, the Chesapeake and Ohio.

Girls' League, Guiding Discussions, Amusement

Senior Honor
Council Meets

"Every girl in P. H. S. is a member of the Girls' League," and although it is a very large organization, it has been very active. The five cents, which was collected as dues from every girl, made it possible to sponsor many social activities.

At the beginning of the school year, each freshman girl was assigned a senior guide by Dean Felsted, who is sponsor of the League. It was the duty of the guide to explain the rules of our school and to answer any question that the newcomer might ask. They planned hikes and other entertainment together.

Special assemblies were held for the girls, when the Dean gave them good advice concerning appearance, and everything that would help them to develop their personality. To the senior girls, she gave talks about college work and suggestions for their future life.

Parties were given in order that the girls might become better acquainted, as well as have a good time. The League has drawn an increased number of girls into service, and has played an important role in activities.

The leaders below are Mrs. Felsted, Jeanne Wilson (president), Alberta Wittenburg (vice president), Betty Babcock (secretary), Dorothy Thompson (treasurer).

League Cabinet
and Chairmen

The cabinet, which is made up of the chairmen of the various committees of entertainment, refreshments, hospitality, publicity, health, and finance, make up the executive body of the Girls' League. They have planned programs which brought many of the girls into service and have helped in the development of our school.

At a special girls' assembly, the candidates for the different offices of the League made short speeches to introduce themselves before the election. They were installed at an impressive meeting in May.

An outstanding social event of the year was the Senior Mother-Daughter tea. While Dean Felsted met and greeted everyone, some of the teachers poured the tea, and music was provided by Elnora Wheeler, Margaret Patterson, and Gene Dever.

All of the classes were represented in the cabinet and each member has worked diligently with her committee to see that each attempted activity was a success.

Girls' Senior Honor Council

The Senior Honor Council was selected by Dean Felsted from the many senior girls of our school. The honor was bestowed upon these girls because of the leadership, personality, and character which they evidenced. One junior girl, Willa Winter, was also chosen as a member on the same basis. Next year, she can explain the work and help the new members in many ways.

Each member of the council conducted a discussion group of ten freshmen girls, under the supervision of the Dean. The aim of the council was to develop the personality of the freshmen girls by means of these discussions. Some of the interesting topics used were appearance, friendship, manners, and conduct around school as well as outside conversation, and everything that would add to the charm and individuality of the underclass women.

Every two weeks at the girls' homes, the counselors gave reports of their progress and raised questions concerning their own personality. The girls have worked faithfully and have also had many good times. Near the end of school, they gave a Pot Luck Supper and a picnic.

Although the Senior Honor Council is a rather new activity, it has already accomplished much and will continue to do so in the future. For the coming year the Dean has secured some interesting booklets to serve as guides for the discussions. Selection as a member of this council is one of the highest honors a senior girl can receive.

Francis;
Rhea, Bob,
Madeline

This group of young people, bubbling over with pep, and energetic toward their new sort of school life, stormed P. H. S. in the fall of 1935. The customary election brought forth the following results: Francis Dale, president; Robert Daniels, vice-president; Rhea Mae Wendelken, secretary; and Madeline Bennett treasurer. Miss Ruth Cyfers, Miss Henrietta DuPuy, and Mr. Fred Multer served as their sponsors. Their social activities of the year started with a freshman "mixer"—and how those freshies did mix! Arrangements by the freshmen advisory presidents, aided by the sponsors, were responsible for the success of their premier undertaking.

Later in the year, the class gave a skating party. The committee on this occasion were George Selby, George Clark, and Francis Dale. The party was a huge success in contrast to the small managing committee. Great expectations for the class of '39 are based upon the rapidity and ease with which they acclimated themselves to our rules and customs, the long lists of students of this class named in the Echo as maintaining averages over 95%, and the numerous members honored in the National Honor Assembly for a highest distinction rating during their short stay.

Fr. Highest Distinction

A feature of the annual National Honor Assembly is the award of honorable mention to those freshmen who have maintained an average of ninety or above since their entrance into high school. At the assembly of April the thirtieth Mr. C. S. Dale read the names of thirty-one freshmen.

Home Room 201 placed the greatest number of pupils on the honor list of the sophomore class. Mr. C. S. Dale also read the names of three low juniors who had maintained an average of ninety. These highest distinction students are possible candidates for National Honor Society.

The sophomore class brought themselves into the glare of the social limelight by their dance this year, the "Hollywood Hop". To the committee heads, John Griffin, general chairman, Margaret Ida Gardner, Barbara Curran, Sara TePas, James Rickey, and Betty McCauley, go much credit for one of the year's most novel functions. "Tarzan" Morris, "Clark Gable" Cunningham, "Claudette Colbert" Craig, "Slim Summerville" Ashpaw, "Ruby Keeler" Watkins, "Minnie Mouse" Gordon and "Mickey Mouse" Wittenburg, who had been selected by ballot, impersonated their namesakes. Lynn Wittenburg, president, Don Coburn, vice-president, Margaret Ida Gardner, secretary, and Sam Frowine, treasurer, served as executives of the class the past year. Their sponsors were Mr. Nelson Brown, Mr. Sylvan Jackson, and Mr. James McElhaney.

In retrospect we find Donald Coburn, Frank Rickey, John Griffin, and Georgia Mabe, as officers, guiding the class in 1934. Miss Elizabeth Altzman, Mr. Don Stewart, and Mr. Robert Bigler sponsored them at this time. The customary freshman party and a skating party comprised their social undertakings. Certain ones of their number have shown full realization of the value of extra curricular activities. They are enrolled in clubs and were in the musical comedy in addition to their work with the class.

A nautical Junior-Senior climaxed three years of intense activity on the part of the oncoming seniors. Janice Mitchell, serving also as class treasurer, was chosen prom-chairman. The other officers this year were Don Covert, president, Betty Babcock, vice-president, and Mildred June Coleman, secretary. La Fiesta Grande (Sponsor Don Stewart's Mexican influence is suspected) netted the class exchequer a tidy sum which was further enriched by their stage production "It Won't Be Long Now". Mr. Stewart, Miss Burton and Mr. Leach greatly aided the class as sponsors.

The archives reveal James Bailey, Janet Heisel, Don Covert and Bob Appel as the chosen four in 1933. Miss Gorsuch, Mr. Jackson and Mr. Lorentz were the stabilizing faculty at this time. An unusual circus day dance, with pink lemonade, clowns and balloons entrenched them in the social register.

Their sophomore balloting again gave the presidency to James Bailey. Don Covert became vice president; Janice Mitchell, secretary; Janet Heisel, treasurer; Miss Gorsuch, Mr. Jackson, and Mr. Leach, sponsors. Continuing their policy of novelty in entertainment, they brought a marionette show to Portsmouth audiences, and thrilled the school with a night club dance.

Eventful Years; Beginning Uncertain Ones

The enthusiasm manifested by the class which entered high school in 1932 has not waned.

They elected Edward Burney as freshman president, Jean Meyer, vice-president, Margaret Jordan, secretary, and Dewey Peterson, treasurer. Their first year activity consisted of only one social event, a grand party!

In 1933, the sophomore officers were David Morris, president; Robert Rardin, vice-president; Sara Ann Moore, secretary; and Jean Brooks, treasurer. They sponsored the sophomore "hop" and a skating party. This class first showed its dramatic ability in the clever play, "She Wouldn't Stay Put."

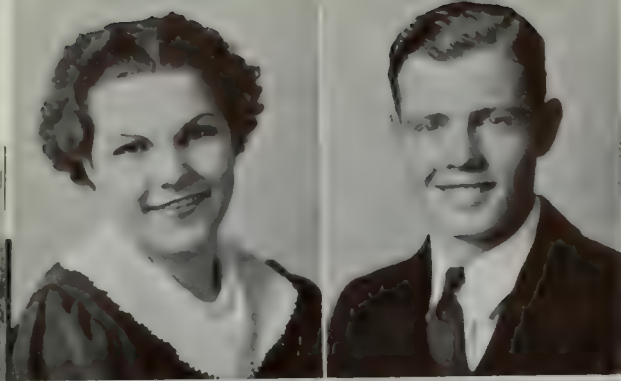

In 1934, the officers were: Robert Rardin, president; Sara Ann Moore, vice-president; Bob Brown, secretary; and James Stevenson, treasurer. The outstanding events were the Junior Carnival, in which Emily Rickey as Mae West was a big hit, the Junior play "Enter the Prodigal," and a South Sea Prom, held at Grant Gym for the first time.

The senior officers were: Harold Cunningham, president; Edward Burney, vice-president; James Daulton, secretary; and Dorothy Clark, treasurer. The class sponsors were Miss Charlotte Bell, Miss Anna Blazer, and Mr. J. R. Freeland. The climax of the senior dramatic ability was reached in the Commencement play "Through the Keyhole," directed by Miss Blazer. June 4—Commencement! Dr. Charles W. Guilkey, Dean of the University of Chicago, Graduate School of Technology, was the impressive speaker. The class of 1936 exits leaving behind a series of achievements in every phase of school life.

With Due Reverence

Although illness prevented Miss Dorothy Mullens from attending high school during her junior year, the student body as a whole will remember her. Her death came in the fall of 1934. Dorothy's fine work her two years in high school placed her in the upper third of her class scholastically. An interesting personality won her innumerable friends.

Scholarship, Leadership, Service And Character

The impressive initiation of new members into the National Honor Society, April thirtieth, was an outstanding day of the school year. Annually five per cent of the junior class and ten per cent of the senior class are elected by the high school faculty. The standards of election include scholarship, leadership, service, and character.

The yearly assembly was conducted by the thirteen members who entered the club in their junior year. Alberta Wittenburg, secretary of National Honor Society, read the names of the new members and Sara Ann Moore, vice-president, conducted them through the initiation. As president, James Stevenson administered the oath and treasurer James Daulton presented the newly elected students with club constitutions. Miss Helen Glockner, Mr. C. E. Dowling, Mr. Fred Kaningeiser, and Rev. Benton B. Miller, spoke on the subjects of scholarship, service, leadership, and character respectively. Dr. J. M. Bobcock presented pins, gifts of the Parent-Teachers' Association, to the twenty-eight seniors and nine juniors elected to the society. Club activities of the year were directed by Mrs. L. W. Felsted and Mr. W. E. Massie.

Scholastic Endeavor, In Pace With The Present

In the district scholarship contest held annually at Athens, Ohio, Portsmouth High School ranked fourth. Thirty students represented the school in fifteen subjects. As a result of the state places this school was awarded honorable mention in Ohio.

It is the custom of the Portsmouth Times to sponsor a series of current event tests in which students compete in their respective classes for cash awards. The boy and girl who receive the highest grades of all the competitors win a grand prize.

Library; Books Tell Man's Age-Old Knowledge

For the first time in the history of P. H. S., the library is in charge of a teacher who is able to devote all her time to increasing its efficiency and usefulness to the students. The new librarian, Miss Nichols, is assisted by a competent staff of helpers, who are taught to file, repair, and classify both new and old books. A play "Bringing Up Nine" was given in November by the assistants under the direction of Miss Nichols, with the help of Marian Horn and Virginia Colley.

— Fuller Understanding Of Their Native Tongue

With its membership open to students of all ranks in P. H. S., the English club is an organization which endeavors to increase the appreciation and knowledge of American and English literature. Meetings are held the first Tuesday in every school month. Miss Pfarr completed her third year as its sponsor. The programs for the meetings are conducted under the direction of entertainment committees, which are composed of club members. These programs usually consist of guest speakers whose subjects concern language and literature. English book reviews, parties, movies, and other special entertainments give variety to the meetings. At one meeting Miss Johnston showed interesting pictures of her travels on the Mediterranean. On other instances Miss Bertram told of her experiences in England, Mr. Leach gave a book review, a Christmas party and musical programs were given. At the last meeting of the year, election of officers for the next year was held and refreshments were served.

The Trojan Staff, Graphic Historians Of Scholastic Life in 1936;

Always on the alert for "photographable" or noteworthy events, members of the year book staff, under the capable direction and helpful assistance of Miss Katharine Kauffman, have tried to make the 1936 Trojan an outstanding publication.

The staff is divided into sections with responsible persons at their heads, who receive assignments for members of their group. Much of the work and responsibility falls upon the two editors, business manager, and advisor, who are accountable for the publication. Duties of the editors include the planning and arrangement, assignments to the various departments and many other major and minor details. The business manager and accountant supervise the selling campaign, handle all finances. The publicity staff helps sell the year book by planning signs and skits. All staff members take part in the subscription campaign. Securing advertising contracts from business concerns is the responsibility of the advertising section, whose work helps reduce the initial cost of the volume.

Working Toward Readers' Approval And Journalistic Blue Ribbons

The sport activities of P. H. S. are in charge of two sections, boys' and girls' athletics, each of which has charge of the pictures and write-ups in its respective sports. Members of the activities and organization staff obtain club pictures and information. The class section supervises the seniors' pictures and activities and other class groups and histories. Variety is supplied by members of the feature section, who have charge of the calendar for the school year and interesting pictures for the snap pages. One of the most important groups is the photographers, whose work it is to expose, develop, and print most of the pictures brightening the pages of the book. Their Graflex, Recomar, flash bulbs and flood-lights are credited with all but the senior photographs, the majority of the stage pictures, interiors of the office and library, the coaches, and the basketball boys in Grant Gym, which were taken by Mr. Harris, an honorary staff member. The regular photographers were greatly assisted by Bob Winter and three apprentices, H. Allen, K. Banfield, and E. Long.

Echo, — To Serve As A Means Of Expression For The Student Body

Clever posters, unusual announcements, and original contests kept the Echo, the school's bi-weekly publication, constantly before the student body. For another year the junior class of Portsmouth High school has carried on the tradition of high standards of journalism in publishing this newspaper.

This year's staff adopted a platform which appeared in each edition. The aims as stated in the planks were as follows: (1) to promote better sportsmanship; (2) to serve as a medium of expression for the student body and faculty; (3) to urge a more initiative Student Council.

During the school year of '35 and '36 the editorial and business staffs have worked to-gether under the direction of Miss Margaret Anderson, staff advisor, to make this a truly successful year for the Echo. Chief of the editorial staff was Jean Salladay who was assisted by Bob Appel and Aaron Mercer, managing editors, and Janice Mitchell, news editor. The business staff was headed by Fred Gilmer, business manager and James Bailey, advertising manager.

It has been the aim of the staff to publish the news of the school in an interesting and original form. This idea has been carried out very successfully in the numbers that have been published. Adding color to the issues

Members of the staff are grouped below according to position: editors, advisor, J. Salladay, B. Appel, Miss Anderson, A. Mercer, J. Mitchell; feature writers, J. Taylor, L. Chilton, M. Johnson, B. Babcock; sport editors, E. Eynon, D. Flood, J. Gleason (Exchange editor), D. Covert; business staff, F. Gilmer, K. Webb, M. Coleman, J. Bailey, B. Feyler.

Be And Faculty; High Journalistic Standards; Colorful Presentation

were the Christmas and Hallowe'en specials printed in brilliant hues of red, green, and orange. Other papers were artistically decorated with drawings appropriate to the season. By introducing several new features the content itself has been made colorful. One of the most interesting features was the "Guess Who" section in which Portsmouth High School students were described. An educational help was added by the publishing of "Guest Editorials" contributed by the faculty members. A tribute was paid to the outstanding seniors who were pictured in the "Who's Who" column. The last edition published during the year was dedicated to the seniors. It was the first attempt of any Echo staff to publish a six page paper. A jaunt to Columbus in the fall to attend the journalism convention furnished a bit of social life for staff members. At this convention speakers from leading newspapers gave hints to school staffs.

In the contests sponsored by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association and the National Scholastic Press Association, the Echo received ratings of second place. Most of the points gained in favor of the Echo concerned the attractive layout of the advertising, the arrangement of the articles, and the wording of the headlines. These organizations advised giving more space to distinctly literary articles and alumni news.

The groups below complete the Echo staff membership, which has operated successfully both semesters: reporters, D. Evans, V. Secrest, D. Barry, R. Shultz, H. Klein; art editors, H. Ribble, P. Moore, A. Padan; reporters and proofreaders, C. Richards, M. Elliott, M. Robinson B. Gilliland, L. Moore; typists, M. Davis, M. Rheil, F. Burke, R. Beckett, H. Esham.

Junior Class Admonishes "It Won't Be Long Now"

The junior class play, directed by Mr. Leach, concerned a man who had but twenty-four hours to live. William Meek (F. Newman) "Beansy" Blake (K. Webb and Miss Wilkes (N. Fuller) ask James Preston (J. Bailey) for higher wages. Moreover, Preston and Charles Dobson (W. Gilliland) want to build a new factory. Ann Winston (B. Babcock) and Dr. Walter Talley (J. Gleason) offer opposition. In a quarrel, Ann tells Preston that she and the doctor are engaged. Soon Preston absentmindedly takes some headache medicine. Taking advantage of this, Dr. Talley tells him that he took a deadly poison and will die shortly.

Preston bravely prepares for the end by giving away his property and exposing the political corruption. He decides to marry Vivian Darrell, a "lithping" flapper, (M. Robinson) in a double ceremony with Ann and the doctor. Rev. Loring (R. Appel) officiates.

He doesn't die, but he is wed to a pest. On the verge of suicide he learns the minister is a fake. The property is returned and Ann is his very own.

In Preston's household were Thomas, a butler, (T. Pake); Olga a Swedish cook, (J. Mitchell); and Frances, a maid, (M. Withrow). The cast also included several minor but indispensable characters: the policeman, (R. Moore), Cullen a politician, (F. Gilmer), and two photographers (E. Reinhart and D. Evans).

Senior Dramatic Efforts, Major And Secondary

"Thru The Keyhole" was the three act comedy presented by the senior class and directed by Miss Blazer. The plot centers about the Tierneys, who are quite well-to-do. Grandma Tierney (Doris McClure) who key hole gazes unashamedly, "makes" the play. Her grandson, James Tierney (Don Earle), is quite interested in Genevieve Van Camp (Marguerite Meredith). Also, Genevieve's "brother" Archie (Harold Cunningham) is quite fond of Mary Tierney (Jean Friel) (and her fortune).

Grandma, who believes one can get more education listening through key holes than going to school, thinks that the Van Camps are after money and she proves it. When the Van Camps grow cool, Grandma gets all the blame. Joan Coudray (Betty Coffman) is the French maid who knows two French words and later reveals herself as an actress. William the butler (Bill Smith) turns out to be an English nobleman. George Allen (Dave Morris) is Jim's rich friend. The scenes above are in rehearsal.

The senior class also presented "Grandpa's Christmas Spree" in the Christmas assembly. It was an entertaining comedy of one act which was full of the Yule spirit. This play was coached by Miss Bell. Those who took part were Robert Rardin, Walter McCoy, Junior McNeer, Harold Cunningham, Virginia Johnson, Jean Friel, Elizabeth Foster, Marjorie Sisson, Jean Brooks, Peggy Jordan, Helen Wells, Bill Osborne, Dot Clark, and Jean Meyer.

Stressing All Phases Of Histrionic Training

This year the program of Revelers centered on training the members in all phases of dramatic activity. Largely responsible for this plan were the officers, Elnora Wheeler, Jean Friel, James Warman, Robert Brown, as president, vice-president, treasurer, and secretary respectively, and Miss Elizabeth Bertram. A Hallowe'en party which served for the initiation of new members opened the year's activities. During the year three one-act plays were presented under the supervision of Miss Bertram. Jean Meyer directed and acted in "Rehearsal" with the following players: Dorothy Gilmore, Willa Winter, Jean Brooks, Marguerite Meredith, and Lillian Tunsberg. The second of the series, "Proposal Under Difficulty", directed by Frank Moore, boasted a cast which included Jean Salladay, Clifford Maynard, Donald Earle, and Anna Rue Trigg. Aaron Mercer, Mary Ellen Colley, Frank Moore, Nedra Fuller, and Harold Kelly presented "Thank-you, Doctor". Semi-annual tryouts filled the ranks with juniors for the next year.

Verse-makers, Lyric Muses

— And Spare The Poet For His Subject's Sake

Potential poets in P. H. S. are organized into the Verse-makers Club, who hold bi-weekly meetings with Miss Graham as their sponsor. At these gatherings round-table discussions are held concerning the merits and demerits of the members' original poetry, a method which helps increase the quality of their work.

Some of the better poems have been deemed worthy of publication in the Echo, and with experience and maturity these rhymesters should become well-known.

Resolved—To Promote The Art of Public Speech

P. H. S. is again represented among Southeastern Ohio high schools with a debating team. This year's team was directed by Miss Hughes, a coach of long experience. The topic for this year's debate was: Resolved: That the Several States Should Enact Legislation Providing for a System of Complete Medical Service Available to Citizens at Public Expense.

The negative team won from Bainbridge, Hamden, and Minford, while the affirmative team lost to Wheelersburg and Hamden.

Bringing To Life A Basic Language Once Dead

Inter Nos, meaning among ourselves, is open to all freshmen and sophomore Latin students whose grades are up to par. Meetings were held the second Tuesday of each school month. The president, James Lynn, presided at the business part of the meeting after which the entertainment committee took charge. Miss Colley and Miss Blazer act as joint sponsors of this organization.

Throughout the year a variety of programs was presented. Miss Johnston gave a lecture, accompanied by motion pictures, on her travels over seas through Greece and Italy. Novel plays, amateur hours, and contests were given by the program committees which were appointed each meeting. The purpose of the club is to promote a further knowledge of Latin to its members.

Plus Ultra, Third And Fourth Year "Humanists"

The large membership of Plus Ultra well represents third and fourth year Latin classes. This year the club has been under the capable supervision of Miss Vera Conn. Latin influences on English and modern literature, architecture, and thought have been studied in detail. Papers were prepared on mythology, ancient deities, modern Latin, and Roman civilization. In special connection with the seniors' work with Vergil's Aeneid, commentaries were consulted and from these, the students formed their own ideas and opinions. Several contributed original poetry which contained the subject matter of that ancient work of Vergil. In this manner, the so-called "dead" language has become very much alive.

One of the most outstanding programs was in celebration of St. Valentine's Day. After a short formal meeting, the program developed into a social gathering. Valentines were exchanged and refreshments were served. John Tsimis sang the Greek National Anthem in the native tongue. The event most eagerly anticipated was the picnic held near the end of the school year.

This organization has done much to promote increased interest in the classical arts. Opportunities to gain vast knowledge have been offered which the students would otherwise have been denied.

Cosmopolitan Users Of Unorthodox French

Each month the French students of Portsmouth High School become Les Jeunes Modernes, adopting for a brief time the language and customs of France. Serving as president of the group was Alberta Wittenburg, who, with the assistance of Miss Katharine Kauffman, club advisor, planned a series of interesting programs for the entertainment and benefit of the members. Mary McFarland kept the books, capably filling the position of secretary-treasurer, while Jeanne Wilson was of general assistance as vice-president.

The members of this club, which includes all students of French, took an active part in the programs this year. Those with dramatic ability contributed their talents in portraying the well-known fairy stories which were narrated in French by Miss Kauffman. Two of the most enjoyable additions to the meetings were the singing of French songs and the serving of refreshments. Most profitable to the members are the pen-pals that they have formed through the French correspondence sponsored by the club.

The outstanding event of the year was the annual Christmas party on which occasion new members were initiated. Each new applicant was required to give a selection in French for the entertainment of the old members. After the initiation the members received gifts from le Pere Noel. Another festive celebration was the sending of French sentiments in observance of Saint Valentine Day.

Annually Mrs. Yvonne Warner, a French war-bride, visits the club to give the members a close-up view of French life. The magazines and papers she contributes to the department are assets of great interest.

"Los Monitos Espanoles," Castilian Monkeys

The current affairs of the Spanish and Mexican governments aroused much interest in the Spanish Club this year. Miss Dorothy Duis has capably directed this group with the loyal co-operation of Albert Allen, the president, and the other officers.

The members have dealt with the history, architecture, and living conditions of the Spanish speaking countries. Detailed reports have been made on various Hispanic matters and much current literature has been read.

Miss Johnson showed the club members the pictures of her Mediterranean tour and told them much of old Spain as it is today. Mr. Jackson and Mr. Stewart told of visits to Mexico, of the customs, and of some interesting experiences in that country. At one meeting, the members enjoyed seeing Mr. Homer Selby's picture of an actual bull fight.

This group has chosen a pin significant of the purpose of the club. It is a small silver emblem in the shape of an old Spanish stronghold. It is truly Spanish and the members hope that it will be adopted as the permanent symbol of the organization.

Near the close of the school year, the club held a picnic at Wood's camp on June 1st and everyone had a delightful time. There were games, eats, everything that one could want on such an occasion, and the students were not limited to the Spanish tongue, so their loquacity was unlimited. Adios.

Clean Speech, Sport, Scholarship And Living

Through the efforts of the Y. M. C. A. secretary, Mr. May, a group of freshmen and sophomore boys was organized into the Torch-Y club. This club holds its meetings every Tuesday in the Kricker building. The program for the year consisted of special speakers, social events, and round table discussions. Homer Brown, former drum major of P. H. S., serves as their sponsor. The club meetings are handled in much the same manner as those of the Hi-Y. This year's big event for Torch-Y was a picnic held at Rickey's farm.

—Create, Maintain, Extend Christian Character

Senior Hi-Y is one of the school's outstanding Christian organizations. This club is composed of junior and senior boys possessing high morals and seeking vocational guidance in life.

Meetings are held every Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the Kricker building. Carl May, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., heads the Hi-Y and Mr. Seaman acts as sponsor. The general yearly program of Hi-Y consists of round-table discussions, in which problems of the club are discussed, talks by eminent public speakers, attendance of delegates at the state convention at Tiffin, Ohio, and social events. At the first meeting of the club this year eighteen new members were taken in with an impressive induction ceremony.

Among the prominent men who spoke to the club were Mr. Selby, Mr. Haley, Mr. Freeland, and Mr. Fletcher, who gave addresses on current topics.

The delegates attending the convention at Tiffin, Ohio, this year were Junior McNeer, Bill Smith, Joseph Voit, Bill West, Edward Leach, and Duncan Newman. The purpose of this conference is to enrich the lives of delegates through Christian fellowship. The boys were entertained by speakers, discussions, dinners, dances, parties, and motion pictures.

This year trophies were awarded by the Hi-Y to Duane Wade for being the best sport on the basketball team, and to the best all around sport in the high school, Duncan Newman. Hi-Y also sponsored a ping-pong tournament won by Anthony TePas.

Fun, Food For Thought, Fellowship, And Faith

The newest organization connected with the activities of Portsmouth High students is the Y-Hi, formed early in the spring of '36. This club sponsored by the Y. M. C. A., encourages spiritual, educational, and recreational life for girls of high school age.

Sara Ann Moore received the honor of being the club's first president. Mary McFarland, Jean Friel, and Marguerite Meredith served their offices well as vice-president, secretary, and treasurer respectively. The club chose Mrs. D .B. Stemen as adult advisor.

Weekly programs were planned to aid the girls in selecting vocations. Interesting talks were made, after which the girls asked questions. The speakers representing various fields were Mrs. C. H. S. McFayden, Miss Katharine Kauffman, Miss Nancy Grimes, and Miss Johnson. After the meetings refreshments were served, and games were played in the recreation room. Y-Hi girls took part in sponsoring a ping-pong tournament.

The purpose of these junior and senior girls is to promote high standards of Christian character among the girls of Portsmouth. Club activities centered around the motto: "Fun, Food for Thought, Fellowship, and Faith."

The year was closed with a picnic at the Boy Scout camp June first. At this time the newly elected officers for next year were inducted. Plans for the day were in charge of Sara Ann Moore, Elizabeth Foster, Marguerite Meredith, and Mary Ellen Colley.

1936 marks the eighth year of intense activity on the part of the Home Economics Club. Every year this group contributes something to the domestic science department. This year the donation was $30 worth of books.

The club, which is sponsored by Miss Waller and Miss Shinkle, is a member of the American Home Economics Association. Honorary pins are given to the students who have been active members, and letters to the girls who have received 250 service points in one year.

Some of the social events of the club have been teas, parties, picnics, and a Christmas Pot Luck Supper. This year Rosemary Hampton and Mary Leslie were sent as delegates to the State Convention at Columbus. Ruth Davidson, who also attended, was chosen as district secretary of the Convention.

Bookkeeping awards were also awarded to twenty-one students with an average of ninety or above for the four semesters of work. Miss Edna Zola Knight, who secured her B. Manual Training; Industry Yet Needs Craftsmen

Boys are prepared for the industrial world in the workshop and the machine shop of Portsmouth High School. During their freshmen and sophomore years, they alternate woodshop with mechanical drawing every two weeks. In the woodshop they become skillful workers in making stools, radio benches, bench lathes, table and floor lamps, and other home furnishings. During the students' junior and senior years, they alternate machine shop with drawing bi-weekly. Here the boys disclose much aptitude in the making of floor and table lamps, cigar stands, and smaller articles, such as screw drivers and hammers. Three monitors are appointed for the classes, one by Mr. Dale, another by Mr. Monrad, and the third by the class as a whole. These monitors are responsible for discipline. This system has been a decided success. The members of the drawing classes learn to draw plans of what they are going to make, besides drawing and painting interesting pictures. In mechanical drawing the five types of art concerned are classical, water color, free hand, detail, and assemblage. Every year the boys display their best projects in the Boys' Hobby Fair, which is sponsored by the Rotary Club. It has always been very successful. Any boy taking the manual training course may also become a member of the Industrial Arts Club.

The three teachers who prepare these students for their different industries are Mr. A. L. Monrad, Mr. Richard E. Hopkins, and Mr. C. A. Martin. Mr. Monrad obtained his M. E. degree from Oslo School of Technology and his I. C. S. degree, Pennsylvania, and attended the LaSalle Extension University of Chicago. His classes are in machine shop and mechanical drawing, and he is a sponsor of the Industrial Arts Club. . . . Mr. Hopkins acquired his B. S. degree at Miami. He teaches mechanical drawing and is coach of basketball and co-coach of football. Mr. Martin attended the Bradley Polytechnic Institute of Illinois and the University of Michigan. He teaches woodshop and sponsors the Industrial Arts Club.

Sustaining The Workmanship Of Medieval Guilds

Organized for mechanically-minded boys interested in machinery in its every phase, this club has always been one of the school's most dependable organizations. This year the Industrial Arts club held its meetings every other Tuesday afternoon in the machine shop.

Mr. Martin, the instructor in woodshop, serves as the sponsor and advisor of the club assisted by Mr. Monrad, who gives detailed instruction in special phases of the club's work.

Every year the Industrial Arts club has a project which is exhibited at the Boys' Hobby Fair. This year each member of the club made a pair of skis as a project.

The social events of the year were chiefly skating parties. At one roller event this year the faculty of Portsmouth High School gave an exhibition of gliding on the hardwood as a special attraction. Two pairs of skis were awarded to the holders of the lucky numbers at a skating party later in the year. The winners of the skis were Peggy Woods and Joe Ratcliff. The treasury of Industrial Arts was well supplied with cash made from these parties.

Robert Doley and Fred Gilmer were awarded trophies for distinctive work done in cabinet making, machine shop, and drawing in addition to maintaining a high scholastic standing. The presentation of these trophies is intended to stimulate interest and create enthusiasm for the work done in these crafts.

Herr Schnabl
And His Band

The P. H. S. band is an important musical activity. Under the direction of Mr. Schnabl, and with a larger enrollment than ever, the band has had a very active year. In the past this musical organization has bestowed many honors on our school among them being five state championships.

This year the band won first place for an outstanding showing made at Jackson, Ohio, and also played in the concert of the Southeastern Orchestras at the Teachers' convention at Athens, Ohio. The state championship contest held at Columbus was won by Mr. Schnabl's proteges, who competed with five other high school bands. Mr. Henri Schnabl, who directs the Band and the Orchestra, obtained a B. M. degree from the College of Music, Mannheim. He attended the Army Band School, Gernheim; National Theater Orchestra, Mannheim; and Ohio State University.

This glee club is chiefly made up of freshmen and sophomore girls. It serves as a preparation for the Senior Girls' Glee Club. The members learn a greater appreciation for and a more extensive knowledge of music. The girls have served on various programs for the school, churches, and clubs of the city . . . Miss Cleo Resler, director of the Glee Clubs and musical comedies, secured her B. M. degree from Cincinnati Music College. She attended the Cosmopolitan School of Music of Chicago and studied under Marchesi in France.

The Boys' Glee Club becomes more active each year. The group is composed of boys from all ranks in school. Their talent has been used on programs of many churches and clubs of the city. Most of the boys who take part in the musical comedy are chosen from their membership. Special class periods are held for the glee club every day and here they learn the technicalities of proper singing and a knowledge of some of the great composers.

Members are: B. Brown, B. Brown, G. Blair, B. Carter, F. Dale, B. Doley, J. Duvendeck, J. Dawson, D. Earle, C. Gleich, D. Horton, A. Klemme, H. Jones, S. Jones, R. Lantz, F. Moore, J. Shelton, T. Glee Clubs Present "Belle of Barcelona," A Musical In Three Acts

The "Belle of Barcelona", a three act musical by C. R. Chaney, was presented by the glee clubs of Portsmouth High School under the direction of Miss Resler. The scene took place in the Plaza of the city of Barcelona, Spain, at the Fiesta time, on the day of the season's bull fight. Margarita de Montero, played by Dorothy Gilmore, had returned from finishing school to her parents' large plantation, and had met her friends in the Plaza, where they were singing, dancing, and cheering the great toreador, Emilio, played by Frank Moore. Vernon Slattery and Francis Dale, student friends of Emilio, were very enthusiastic in the cheering. Bob Brown took the part of Lieutenant Harold Wright, whom Margarita had met in the United States. They had become lovers there, and when Lieutenant Wright came to Barcelona as a customs inspector, they resumed their courtship under difficulties presented by Bob Doley, as manager of Montero's plantation, and Denver Horton, as chief inspector of the customs house. Finally Margarita's parents, Martha Barr and Bill Brown, consented to their marriage. The comedy element was well supplied by Donald Earle as Patrick Malone, a red-headed, green-socked Irish policeman, and Emily Rickey as Miss Ayres, an English governess. Margarita's sister, Mildred June Coleman, became enamored of the toreador, Emilio. The two friends of Margarita, Dona Anita, and Dona

Marcela, were well characterized by Sue Gordon, and Jane Coburn. Lloyd Jeffords enacted the part of Captain Colton of the cruiser Montana.

The stage setting, made by the industrial arts department under the direction of Mr. Monrad, was used throughout the musical comedy. It represented the Plaza of the city and added a realistic touch to the play. Between the acts, the orchestra offered several selections of lively Spanish music, and Sara Eileen Neepner presented a specialty dance.

Game Of Strong Men And Instant Decisions

Coaches
Hopkins
And Ness

Mr. Ralph Ness is head football coach at Portsmouth High. He received his B. A. degree at Wittenberg College. During the football season, Coach Ness spends much time on the field, drilling an eager squad of ambitious gridders in the fine art of playing good football. He is not a passive coach, but digs in and demonstrates his ideas by using himself or one of the boys as an example. Much credit is due Coach Ness for the good showing of Portsmouth football teams. In the summer months Mr. Ness attends coaching school where latest developments in the field of sport are taught. He has attended coaching school at Illinois, Wisconsin, Northwestern, Wittenburg, and Columbus North High. While school is in session, Mr. Ness teaches gym. Mr. Hopkins is the able assistant to Mr. Ness in football. Work with the backfield falls to Coach Hopkins' lot.

Coach Charles A. Lorentz is the reserve football mentor. Before his six years stay at P. H. S. he spent two years at S. Webster. He has supplemented his coaching knowledge by two summer courses at Wittenberg and one at Northwestern University. "Chuck's" position with the reserve squad corresponds to that of the head coach with the varsity. Coach Robert Bigler spent his second football season here as co-coach of the freshmen teams. Before coming here Mr. Bigler coached at McArthur High and at Caledonia College. He also attended coaching school at O. S. U. The other freshman coach was Mr. Fred Multer, who entered the faculty of P. H. S. this year. Formerly he coached at Grant. The success of future varsity teams depends largely upon knowledge of the fundamentals secured under these coaches.

Fall football training started on Monday September 2, in the rain. Persistent showers continued almost every day until the season opened and slowed up practice to the disgust of the candidates. Only five letter-men were left on the squad: White, Rardin, Morris, Turner, and Flowers. The average for the squad was about the same as that of last year. The line was not so heavy as last year's, but kept pace with a fast backfield. The entire team needed polish which it acquired as the season advanced.

We dismissed depression from our minds when we attended the opening struggle in September with our neighbors, East High, from Sciotoville. That night the largest opening crowd in history was packed into the stadium. The date was Friday 13, but the team was not superstitious and buried our neighbors by the score of 62-0. Our Trojans looked like a good team for almost every member of the squad was used and all played well. Turner, our flashy back, showed up true to form. Sciotoville was defeated because of Portsmouth's superior power, experience, and weight. East has yet to defeat the Trojans in a football game.

Our inter-city rival, Central High, was next served upon the platter. This diet seemed to agree with the Nessmen, for the total number of points rolled up was thirty-four, eight points better than last year. Central failed to score. Morris scored twice while Copen, McGary, and Brown struck pay dirt once. Collins and Russell were outstanding for Central. The game was hotly contested from beginning to end.

Wildcats from Logan, West Virginia, invaded our lair next, but Trojans are not easily scared, and the score was 20-0 in our favor. The game was a hard fought affair from the opening whistle to the closing play as Logan's Wildcats were out to avenge the defeat last year in their own backyard. Leo

Turner with two touchdowns and Floyd Copen with one made the best showing. Hugh Ruel started the excitement early in the game by recovering a Logan fumble on their ten yard line which resulted in our first touchdown. The most exciting play of the game was a beautiful sixty yard run by Turner.

A huge parade staged before the Massillon game was to no avail for the Trojans were literally torn asunder. The half ended 7-0, in the favor of our visitors, and it appeared that our far famed opponents were not so good as they were advertised. The second half is best described by the final score of 46-0. The Massillon Tigers averaged about 180 pounds to our 155. Herring collected three touchdowns for the Tigers while Dutton, Gillom, and Glass also bothered Portsmouth considerably.

From Tiger to Wildcat is quite a jump, but the Trojans really came back and defeated Springfield for the first time since the football relationship started between the two schools. The score was 13-12, but one point is worth a million in a ball game. The Trojans ran over the "Cats" for three periods, but the fourth was a different story. Our team scored 7 in the opening period and 6 in the third to Springfield's 12 points in the last period. Turner, Morris, and Brown starred for Portsmouth while Alloway and Lyons were outstanding for Springfield.

The Silver Bullets from Chillicothe penetrated but not enough to sink us, for the Portsmouthites won 12-7. The score tells the story of the game. The quarterback duel waged between Morris and Strausbaugh of Chillicothe was impressive. Morris's 55 yard run and Strausbaugh's clip of 88 yards were the outstanding plays of the game. Portsmouth's superior line play won the game. The number of Portsmouth rooters at Chillicothe outnumbered those of that city.

Polar Bears from Columbus were next on the schedule for the Trojans in the form of a 7-0 win. Coach Ness put in the forthcoming stars who did much toward the winning of the game. The whole afternoon was filled with excitement and good plays. Claypoole and Whitehead were dangerous for North, while Frazier, a freshman, Brown, and Copen performed well for Portsmouth. In this game the Trojans did not weaken in the second half as in several others.

The Middletown Middies did the heretofore impossible by defeating Portsmouth 27-0 right under the floodwall. They torpedoed without mercy from the land and the air. The Trojans were thoroughly outclassed although White and Rardin did much to stem the tide. Hursh and Sexton, passed and ran the Nessmen dizzy.

More Tiger, but this time from our bitter rivals Ironton. The Trojans still had a hangover from the other Tiger game and took one on the chin to the tune of 21-0. The first half was even, 0-0, but Ironton opened up in the second half and scored 21 points. Morris and Brown performed valiantly to keep the score down. The three McAfee brothers, especially Lefty, did much to make Ironton's victory possible. During the half both the Ironton and the Portsmouth bands paraded to the satisfaction of everyone. Every seat in the stadium was taken and many were standing. Ironton fans celebrated far into the night, for it was their first victory over Portsmouth since 1930. A large crowd of fans accompanied the team to this game.

The Huntington Pony Express for the second consecutive year defeated the Trojans, but this time the score was closer, being 19-14. Huntington won on the last play of the game as the result of an invincible pass attack. The Trojan pass attack was nil. White made our last touchdown, supposedly the deciding one, to give Portsmouth a well earned victory. The cheering of the Portsmouth fans was turned to sighs a few plays later when Huntington went down the field for a touchdown and the game. Turner of Portsmouth and Red Turner of Huntington waged a brilliant battle for top honors. Tom Verbage and Shelly Humphries also helped immensely toward Huntington's victory. The band and a large crowd was at the game to cheer for the team.

Blue Bombers of Cleveland East really blasted us by one direct hit 7-0. In this last game of the season a partially blocked punt paved the way for the touchdown. The game for the most part was very closely contested. Sabeth and Rypka of Cleveland were our opponent's outstanding stars. Sabeth, a real sport and a real player, was killed in an automobile accident a few days later. Captain Claude White, who starred for Portsmouth, was later placed as guard on the All State Team.

Football
Reserves

The Reserve football team, starting out with a well-seasoned club, smothered an inexperienced McKell eleven, 52-0. The second game with the New Boston reserves was quite a let-down from this auspicious beginning. The score for this tilt was 19-13. As the tally indicates, the game was evenly played throughout. On October 4, the Vanceburg Lions were subdued by the young Trojans by a count of 19-0. John Vinson scored six points; Miles Throckmorton, thirteen. Two weeks later, a group of youngsters determined to win the first reserve football game ever won from Huntington, trampled their opponents, 13-0.

They next upset the Wheelersburg Pirates on a muddy field. The juniors scored in the first and last periods; the Bucs, in the last, making a total of 20-6. The Ripley Bluejays were next annihilated by a deadly passing and running attack, 69-7.

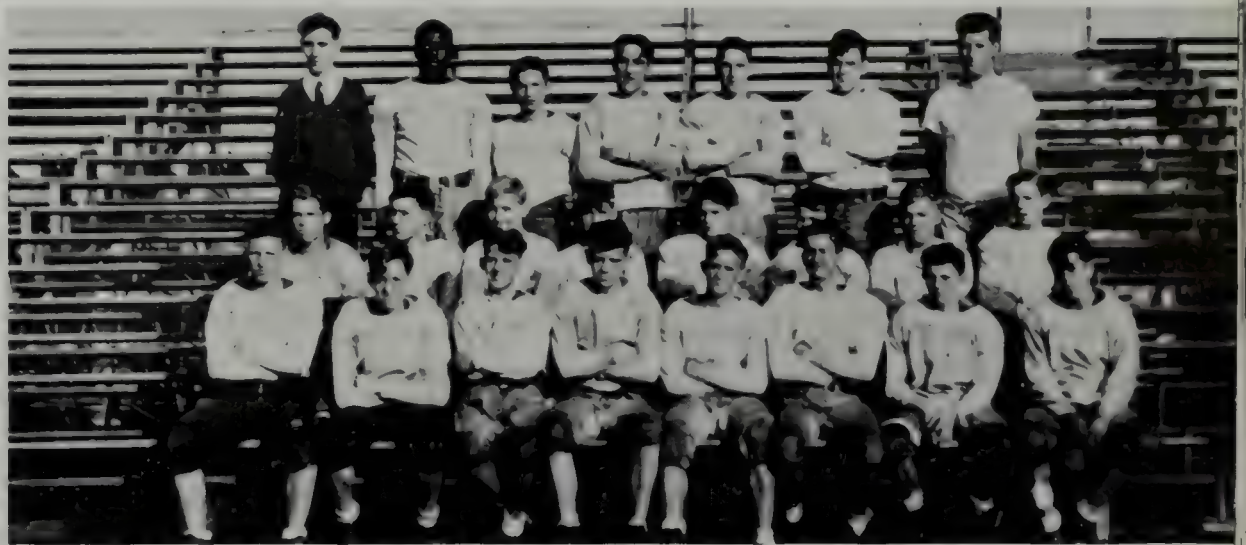

A second victory over the Huntington reserves completed an untied and undefeated season. Their seven straight victories give future reserve teams a mark for their target practice.

Freshmen

The Trojan Babes, composed of a large flock of eager underclassmen, were divided into four squads on September 23, following a limbering-up period. Team number 1 swamped team number 3, 26-6 while number 2 chalked up a 12-0 victory over number 4.

Plans were then formulated to operate a freshman league from the cream of these youngest Trojans. This team was to work on its own independent schedule. In their initial game with another high school they defeated the Tartan Reserves from Sciotoville, 26-6. Johnson, Hurley, and Bender scored for Portsmouth, Smith, for Sciotoville.

An invasion into the grade school ranks netted two wins and one loss. In the first, played against the Woodrow Wilson A team, Harsha and Liggett scored for the Babes. Conversions of the points made a total of 14 compared to Wilson's 6, gleaned on an intercepted pass. The two remaining contests were with an All-Star team from the grades. This team, composed of outstanding players from the A teams, eked out a 6-3 victory in the first game. The Babes retaliated by a 20-0 victory in the second All-Star fray.

The football managerial section started to work early in the year and finished their tasks just before school ended. The equipment, at the beginning of the season, had to be unpacked and put into shape. Jerseys were stenciled, shoes were oiled, headgears were painted, and all washable materials were thoroughly scrubbed. Washday occurred bi-weekly in the Trojan camp. At the close of the sport the equipment was repacked in moth balls. The boys who performed these duties for the varsity were head manager Floyd Smittle and his chief assistant, Jim Randall. "Smittle" had the official position of doing most of the technical work while "Randall" labored otherwise. "Smittle's" work was just as hard as that of any other manager and more important. Joe Voit supervised the reserve equipment. General helpers were more than plentiful. These boys, Leon Novinger, Edward Harlow, and Fred Nye were primarily the Freshmen managers, but they worked with the other teams as much as with the first year boys. For "Charley horses" and other ailments the team had two faithful trainers in "Tiny" Osborne and "Doc" Snyder, who also endeavored to prevent injuries. On the road, both in football and the other sports, one or more managers always accompanied the team.

Cheerleaders, Effervescent With The Trojan Spirit

Jean, Johnny,
Bert; Trio
Plus Sue

Our varsity cheerleaders, Jeanne Wilson, Alberta Wittenburg, and Johnny Millar, were inherited from 1935. This was their fourth consecutive year as masters of cheering. Their smiling faces were present at all the football games. Much credit should be given them for leading the right cheer when the team needed it most. By their efforts, organized cheering was made possible at the out of town games. In the basketball games they were not fortunate enough to attend all of the out of town games, but at what games they did attend, their efforts were really appreciated by the team and the Trojan rooters. The reserve cheerleading squad was composed of Susanne Gordon, Junior Rickey, Lynn Wittenburg, and Alice Suter, whose death in the spring shocked the school. They were chosen by tryouts at the beginning of the year. The reserves attended practically every game with the varsity cheerleaders. At practice, in Mr. Stewart's room, the reserves, especially the boys, were made the object of many jokes and pranks. Perhaps the most important person in the cheerleader organization is Mr. Donald Stewart, serving his third consecutive year as its sponsor, who has spent many hours in educating both the varsity and the reserves to the art of cheering.

More Exciting This Year Than Ever Before

Hopkins' Team Talks It Over

Richard E. Hopkins as head basketball coach has a marked influence on the sportsmanship and physical development of the student body. "Red" became a member of the P. H. S. faculty in 1925 and has turned out many successful teams in the ensuing years. His goal, the state championship, was achieved in 1931. Though not of championship caliber, later teams have maintained an impressive record. Each evening, during the season "Hoppy" teaches and demonstrates the fine arts of the sport. At the games, he is as active as possible giving instructions and checking on the opponent. In addition to his basketball and faculty responsibilities, Mr. Hopkins also serves as baseball coach. His endeavors to carry out a statement made in assembly to the effect that he would make high school baseball important to Portsmouth, have not been in vain. Summer will again find "Hoppy" at coaching school keeping abreast of changes in court and diamond technique.

With Coach Lorentz in charge of the reserve basketball team, Coach Bigler handling the Tots, and Mr. Multer assuming control over the Babes, Coach Ness found himself without specific duties during the court season. However, as the year advanced he found many opportunities to be of general assistance to the other coaches. When the Babe team was abandoned at the end of the first semester, Mr. Multer became co-coach of the Tots. After a few weeks of spring football practice, Coach Ness started workouts with the track team which continued until the last weeks of school. Coach Lorentz's work with the tennis teams, both singles and doubles, resulted in victories over the other league contenders at Norwood. Bigler's share of the spring program included sponsorship of golf. These coaches have, also, striven to raise spring athletics to a major position and bring a greater number of boys under the scope of their physical development work.

Twenty Stiff Opponents; Thirteen Victories

The basketball pre-season this year was an eventful one. First, Portsmouth was made a member of the Southern Ohio league. The other member teams are Middletown, Springfield, Hamilton, and Norwood. The reserve teams of each school also formed a club. A cup was offered to the winner in league competition. The Hi-Y club of P. H. S. planned two trophies; one for the best sport in school and the other for the best sport on the team. At the games the Hi-Y sponsored a series of boxing bouts, tumbling and comedy acts by students in the high school. The league also promised a cup to the school that displayed the best sportsmanship at the games.

Despite the fact that Leo Turner was the only letterman on the squad the Trojans managed to squeeze out a 29-24 victory over Sciotoville. . . In the second game of the season the Huntington Pony Express was bested 20-14. After the first quarter the Trojans kept the game well in hand. . . The Cincinnati Withrow Tigers put up a brilliant fight but were defeated by an 18-16 score. . . Portsmouth in their first out-of-town game came from behind in the third quarter and staved off a determined rush in the fourth to defeat Marietta 30-28. . . Bristol, Tennessee, was stopped next to the tune of 34-22 in a well played game. . . In the first league game, before a large crowd, the Hopkins-coached men sank the Middletown Middies 26-20. . . In another story book game the Trojans nosed out Ironton High there 27-25. This was Portsmouth's seventh straight victory. . . Playing their second league game with the Norwood Indians, Portsmouth suffered its first defeat of the season by a 37-26 score. . . The Springfield was first in the league, Hamilton second and the other three teams tied for third. Duane Wade on the team and Duncan Newman of the student body won the Hi-Y trophies for sportsmanship. Intermediate Court Squad; A Balanced Schedule

Thirteen victories out of twenty-one games gave the reserve basketball team a favorable season. Of numerous township varsities on the schedule only Lucasville succeeded in defeating the reserves. Wins over Norwood to the tune of 32-23 and 21-19; and Hamilton, 22-20, helped compensate for other league defeats. The Juniors split two contests with the Huntington Reserves, losing here 11-14, but winning at Huntington, 31-29. Withrow's second squad bowed before them by a decisive score, 21-4, and New Boston, Ironton and Chillicothe Reserves were likewise subjugated, 24-14, 29-18, and 28-16, respectively.

The Tot basketball squad, made up of freshmen and sophomores, and the Babes, consisting of mid-semester 8A talent split three games in favor of the younger boys. The Tots also encountered South Webster, McKell, Vanceburg and McDermott the first semester, losing consistently but by comparatively narrow margins. The merger of the two squads in January resulted in a much stronger Tot team. They avenged the former defeat from McDermott, 24-8, and triumphed over McKell, 25-9, but again lost to South Webster. They divided two games with Green Township, winning 13-6, and losing, 10-17.

Managers, Trainer, Varsity Court Squad Aides

Head manager Clarence Kelly and Mike Stayer ably handled the equipment needs of this year's varsity basketball squad. In addition to the managers the team boasted a trainer, Clifford Snyder. These three boys contributed much to our court success. Their work began before practice each night and reached completion after the team's departure. Scrubbing, cleaning-up and other menial tasks were cheerfully met. Though the managers bore the brunt of many practical jokes, they were liked immensely by the team. Cliff Snyder's massaging of aches and pains was greatly appreciated.

Reserve, Tot Quatermasters; Faculty Helpers

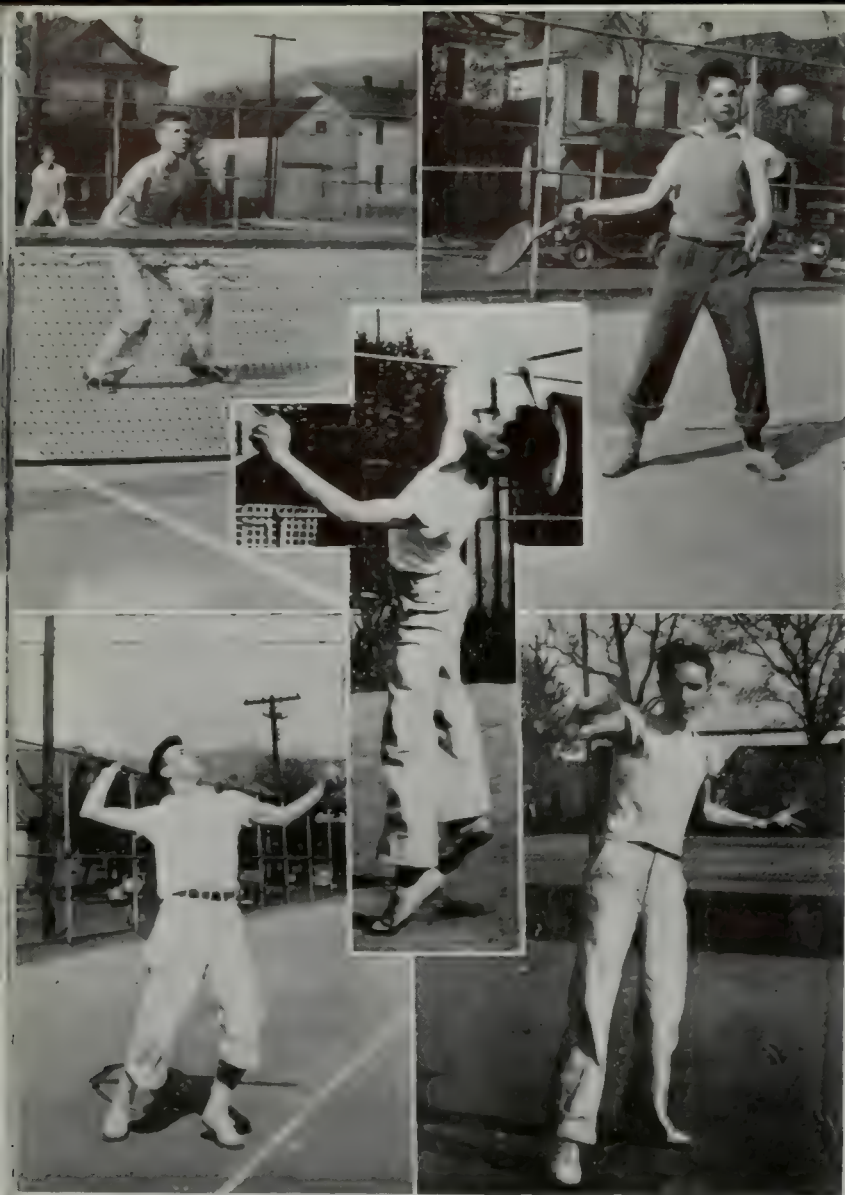

The reserve managers, Walter Bricker and Joseph Steele, successfully executed work of parallel difficulty with the tasks of the varsity managers, but lacking equal responsibility. Managers for the Tots were Thomas Bryant, William Carr and Loren Graham. Due to their little experience, they had a hard job; but their "stick-to-it-iveness" earned them a letter along with the other managers.

Certain members of the faculty were of great assistance through their voluntary service at the gym entrances and ticket booth.

The tennis team, under the able direction of Coach Lorentz, was speedily whipped into shape for their first match with Chillicothe. The boys from Paint Creek were sent home defeated, 5-1. Gallipolis was then beaten 5-1 to be followed by a 5-1 victory over Huntington. In a return match Gallipolis was defeated 4-1. Return matches were played with Chillicothe and Huntington. Then came the district tournament which was followed by 1st place at the Southern Ohio League tournament. In the inter-school tournament Klitch defeated Phillips for the second consecutive year. These boys were also the outstanding players on the team. The track team ran, jumped, and "threw" for a week before its first meet with Sciotoville. The result was a victory for "dear ol' Porchun". The score was 67.5-9.5. The second contest was with the Ironton Tigers who defeated the Trojans by a close score of 69-63. This was followed by a 69.5-35.5 victory over Piketon. In the first triple meet Wheelersburg scored 78.5, Portsmouth 73.5, and Sciotoville 6. The track team attended the district meet at Athens and the Southern Ohio League meet besides participating in other meets.

Miss Bell,
Betty, Willa

Most girls interested and active in the sports of the school belong to the G. A. C., which is sponsored by Miss Bell. After receiving 100 points for participation in various sports, they become full-fledged members. Their outstanding social event is the annual banquet. This year a cup was presented to Bert Wittenburg, chosen the best all-around sport-athlete.

Miss Bell successfully ended her fourteenth year as coach of the girls' athletics. Besides her six gym classes a day, she directs the girls in divers sports. As her helpers, she has Betty Coffman, whose job is to keep the records, and Willa Winter, who keeps the equipment clean and in order.

Red Varsity
Basketball

Alliances Among The Intramural Court Queens

After competitive play between the class teams is completed, outstanding players are selected by the coach, Miss Bell, for the red and blue varsity squads.

After being defeated by the blues, the red squad retaliated and became champions this year by winning the second tilt in exciting overtime play, and by taking the decisive game by a large score. Dolly Taylor, a senior, completed her third year as forward for the varsity team. Another senior, Betty Coffman, continued her scrappy play at guard. Although Winona Addis missed varsity play last year she was in fighting trim again for her final season of play. Peggy Withrow, a flashy guard, exhibited fine work in her second year on the squad. Willa Winter has one more year to serve as center-forward. Hazel Allen, the only sophomore on the team, served well at her post of forward.

On the blue squad Alberta Wittenburg, a senior, completed her fourth season of play on the varsity squad. An outstanding junior, Janice Mitchell, finished her second year as guard. A classmate, Janet Heisel, playing at the forward post, gave her opponents plenty of opposition. Helen Huston, a sophomore, successfully filled her second year in varsity play. Elsie Westwood played in guard position. Unusual playing ability secured for Peggy Horr the only freshman post on the team.

Senior Girls' Team Retains Basketball Crown

Members of the senior basketball squad completed their basketball careers by taking the championship for the third consecutive season. Captained by Bert Wittenburg for the third year, the seniors swept to victory over the juniors, 23 to 17 in the final tilt. The team hasn't changed greatly for the guards Addis, Browning and Henning, the centerguards, Coffman and Gleim, the forwards, Beebe, Wittenburg, Bond, and Taylor, and the center forwards, McFarland and Hedrick have played together all four years.

Though the juniors bowed to the seniors they completed a successful season, taking second place. With Withrow, a speedy guard, acting as captain the juniors defeated such opponents as Grant 41 to 12 and the sophomores 15 to 3. Winter, a center forward made many outstanding plays. Heisel playing as forward was high point girl for the juniors. Another valuable player was Mitchell, a guard.

Outstanding players on the sophomore team included Huston, Westwood, and Allen. Players who contributed good work to the freshman team were Toney, Horr, True, and Townsend. Although these teams lacked championship caliber, they played hard ball.

This is the first year that the Grant team has been included in competitive play in basketball with the clan teams of Portsmouth High School.. These players coached by Miss Gims, will provide formidable opposition on the high school team next year.

Senior Girls'
Hockey Team

Hockey, Feminine Football; Seniors Champions

Hockey, quite a new sport in Portsmouth High, was introduced in the fall of 1934 by Miss Charlotte Bell. Many girls may participate in this sport at the same time. Hockey bears a marked resemblance to football in several ways. There are eleven players on a team; the forward line consists of one center, two insides or guards, and two wings or ends. The middle line consists of three halfbacks; the next line has two fullbacks. The goal-keeper completes the team. Although the goal-keeper is not kept busy all the time, she must be on her toes when the ball comes her way. The forward line usually is composed of the fastest girls on the team. The game depends upon their speed. This year's seniors proved their supremacy in this sport by winning the championship for the second time.

This year the junior high girls were included in the schedule. Although the game is new to them, they showed remarkable teamwork, winning from the freshmen and losing to the juniors by only one point.

The city manager, Mr. Sheehan, has given the girls the privilege of using a part of the Riverside Ball Park in which to play their games.

Senior Girls' Volleyball

Invincible Seniors Repeat As Volleyball Champs

From the large group of volleyball followers, Miss Bell selects nine for each class team.

This year the seniors took the championship for the second time. Two dependable players were Henning and Gleim, whose service and return of of the ball sped their team to victory.

The second place juniors had many dependable players, and the lower class teams are promising.

Juniors At Seniors Heels In Sockball Tourney

In the sockball games which were played at Mound Park, the seniors again took the championship by defeating the sophomores 11-0, the freshmen 18-4, and the juniors 12-1. Before their first defeat from the seniors, the juniors defeated the sophomores 7-2, and the freshmen 11-4.

At Mound Park, front row: A. Burgess, C. Friel, P. Horr, R. Riggs, G. Coiburn, H. Townsend, J. True, J. Thornton, V. Heath, D. Haislett, I. Tieman, H. Lockhart. 2nd row: K. McClure, M. Tremper, V. Feminine Bowlers And Tennis Stars

Out of the eighty or ninety bowlers in P. H. S. these four co-eds came out on top this year with the highest scores. Wittenburg, high bowler, finished the season with an average of 127, while Barry placed second, maintaining an average of 124. Clark and Strothers placed third and fourth respectively.

No points toward a varsity letter are received from bowling, but it has attracted many girls, nevertheless. This sport is enjoyed by many who do not take an active part in other athletics.

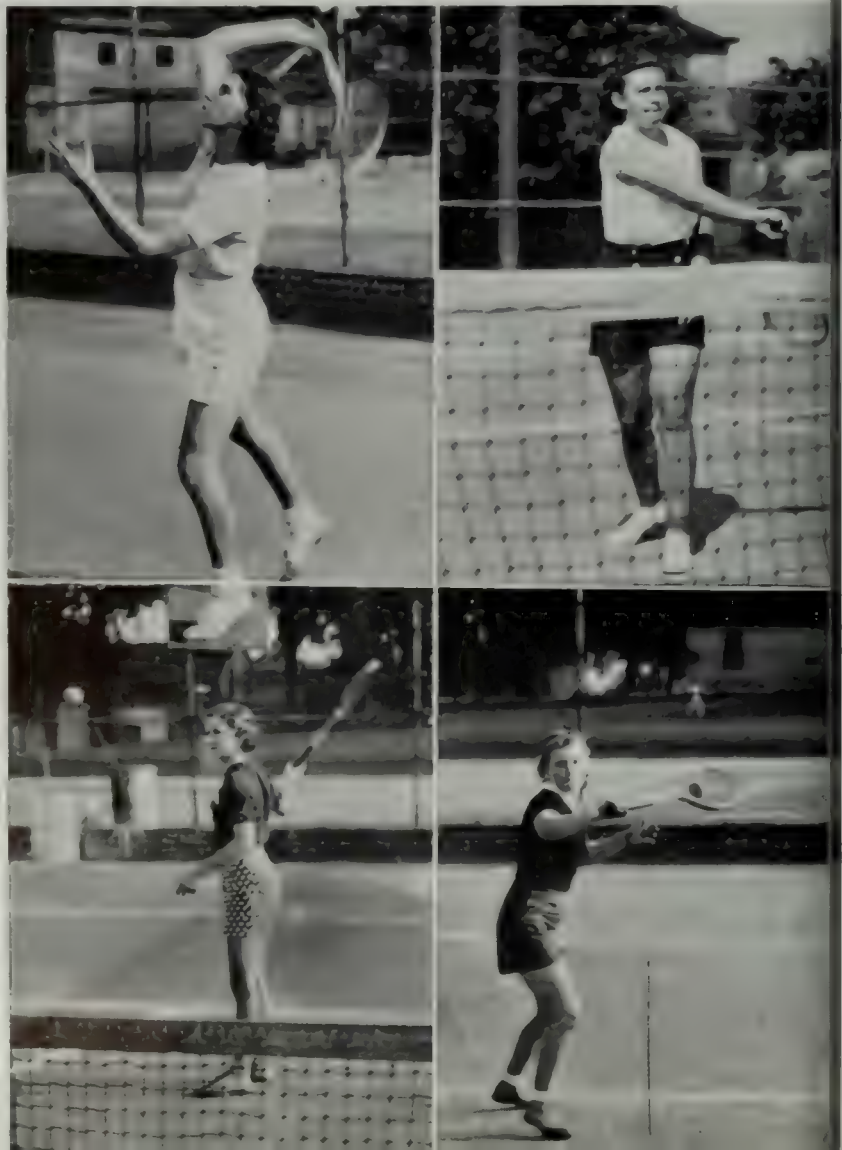

To provide competition and interest the girls were divided into fifteen teams. The three teams which showed up best were Burke's, Wittenburg's, and McFarland's. On Burke's team were Ribble, Smith, Burkhardt, Jordan, and Bachman. Those on Wittenburg's team were Henning, Clark, Whitman, Flood, and Geiger. McFarland's team was composed of Watkins, Feyler, Fritz, E. Bachman, and Maguet. Each year the girls look forward to the bowling season which starts at the same time as basketball and lasts much longer.

Tennis is one of the best liked girls' sports in P. H. S. Each year there are many participants in the tournament. Kinder, Wittenburg, and McFarland remained from last year's team. These three with the addition of Caroline Friel, a scrappy little freshman, composed the team this year. The team was selected by Miss Bell from the girls who reached the quarter-finals in the tournament held earlier in the spring. All girls were eligible to enter. Varsity tennis for girls was re-instated last year after having been abandoned for several years because of the brevity of the school term. The only contestant was Chillicothe which was defeated in three singles matches and one doubles match. Chillicothe was again our opponent this year.

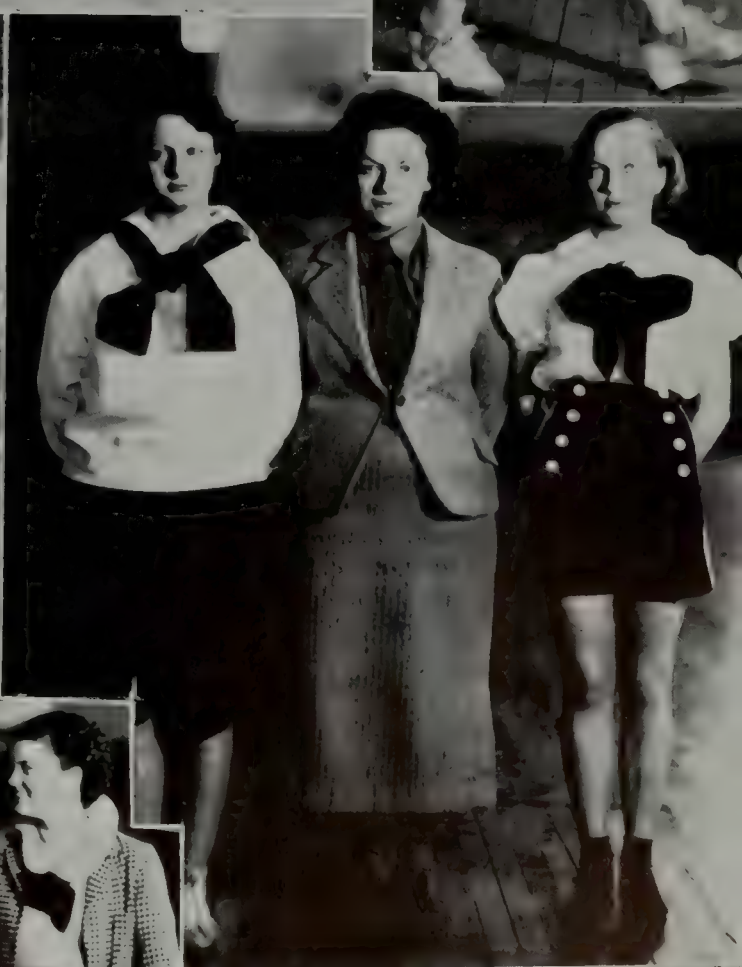

Violet Benner became girls' champion last year by defeating Mary McFarland in a hard fought match. Although neither exhibited a flashy game, Violet proved to be a more steady player. She retained her crown by defeating Bert Wittenburg this year.

Feb. 12—Henry Bannon talked on Lincoln in assembly—chemistry test (wow!)—and French Club comic valentine party. . . . Feb. 13—False alarm for Girls' Assembly—giggle! giggle! Rain takes away snow (incidentally this is no weather report) . . . Feb. 14—What lousy looking valentines were tossed about! DeMolay followed our squelching Hamilton 24-22. . . . Feb. 17—Miss Burton is flixing the gals up with dates to the Leap Year dance—or is it vice versa? . . . Feb. 18—These people who don't know how to behave when a Trojan solicitor comes to their home room should be ostracized from society—yeah! . . . Feb. 19—Beat Ironton in an overtime period last nite—little grade school girl asked Captain

Wade for his autograph—ah-h! . . . Feb. 20—Mr. Zimmerman, a former resident of Portsmouth, spoke on deep-sea diving—keen! . . . Feb. 21—Crowds poured outa school into the theater to see "Midsummer Night's Dream"—E. Wasserman got bounced by a car. . . . Feb. 24—Having much fun smelling up the place by burning sulphur. . . . Feb. 25—Blues & Reds of girls' varsity basketball team are fighting it out. G.A.C. elects best girl sport. . . . Feb. 26—E. Wheeler very sick as a result of breathing hydrogen sulphide in chemistry class. . . . Feb. 27—Meredith says the boy she asked to the Leap-Year dance had been informed 3 different times of her intentions. tish! . . . Feb. 28—Spring! when a young man's fancy lightly turns to things girls have been thinking about all winter! Beat Dayton Stivers 21-20—kinda close. . . . Feb. 29—Junior Leap Year dance—and much fun! They say H. Cunningham was tagged 20 times in 10 minutes—such popularity—stag party afterwards. . . . Mar. 2—March in like a lamb and out a lion (a lyin'—lousy pun) "Sweet Auburn, loveliest car on the market; how they love to drive and park it—etc." far into English class. . . . Mar. 3—Note: how the gals gather 'round Hartwell Frazier whither he goes—puzzle: find the attraction (it's obvious). 3 yea. . . . Mar. 4—3 years ago today Pres. Roosevelt took office—so what? Game at Chilli.—Saw part of it after shoving to the front of the crowd—lost 23 to 20—gnats! . . . Mar. 5—Skit of Band Mothers' play in assembly—"Mrs. Tubbs of Shanty Town." . . . Mar. 6—These big bullies who rush round school yanking the flowing locks of the weaker sex should be kilt to death—'Nother DeMolay. . . . Mar. 9—Friel took in Columbus over the week-end—Everyone's complaining of sore throats—"Spring is here, ah! spring is here! Little birdies everywhere. Everyone's changing underwear. Oh beautiful spring! . . . Mar. 10—Pete got mad and said, "Oh, fiddlesticks!"—Style show at Martings with the Heisel strutting some nifty outfits. . . . Mar. 11—Revelers play "Thank you, Doctor"—Team left for Athens to play Marietta in the first round of the tournament. . . Mar. 12—Team came back from Athens—for various reasons—Jolly Rogers skit in assembly "What A Night." . . . Mar. 13—Friday the 13th—the usual quota of tests—Jolly Rogers play postponed because Howard Hurley has pneumonia—The Meyer is back—kinda had H. worried for fear he'd get grippe, too—it seems as though he called her up the nite she got it—ahem! . . .

ship—Sr. play tryouts . . . Mar. 31—Oh me! just some more tryouts for Sr. play and 'nother current event elimination test . . . Apr. 1—Not that it matters much but this is April Fool's Day—Sr. play cast announced—Jolly Rogers play "What a Nite" (in the auditorium) . . . Apr. 2—Hi-Y Assembly—Wade and D. Newman received the sportsmanship awards and Mr. Fletcher told some silly jokes . . . Apr. 3—'Tis the beginning of the Washington Excursion—and it snowed—and the beginning of spring vacation . . . Apr. 13—Grand Washington trip—teachers proved they can take it, too—and then an eventless (for some) spring vacation—then Easter Sunday and choc'late bunny rabbit—therefore everyone is now sleepy, restless and amusing themselves by figuring the days, hours, and minutes till school is out . . . Apr. 14—Got a new civics teacher, Covell—Byrd missed his train so talk was late—Peebles came to school in his flowered pajama tops . . . Apr. 15—Hit a wrecker on the way to school—at least we're particular—left part of the engine in the middle of the street . . . Apr. 16—Mr. Schnabl's back from New York—and band is going to Columbus . . . Apr. 17—Spring football

Mar. 16—Bob Clare took a slide last nite; he and the occupants of his car landed almost vertically in a 6 ft. hole—well 4 ft. maybe . . . Mar. 17—St. Patrick's Day—Tune in at 7:30 on WPAY and listen to various artists around school advertise their vocal abilities—some stuff . . . Mar. 18—"Spring is here. Don't you think? Twinkle, twinkle Little twink"—Gong! . . . Mar. 19—"Portsmouth Area Threatened With Floods" Water expected to come to 61 ft. on Sunday—and 62 is the limit . . . Mar. 20—Box Social by Girls' League—Cujas dance—Washington trip planned. (p. s.—rain) . . . Mar. 21—Sophomores threw a keen dance—the "Hollywood Hop"—various notorious stars represented . . . Mar. 23—Illustrious alumni home for spring vacation—Representative from Oberlin College amused the kiddies 6th period . . . Mar. 24—Engineers Morris, TePas, and Wyman inspect the flood wall every lunch period and give favorable reports on its condition . . . Mar. 25—Hope thew show the "Jeep" in the funnies tonite—G. A. C. has decided to have swiss steak for the banquet—yummy! . . . Mar. 26—"Echo" out—Representative from Wittenberg relieved us of 1st period and spoke in assembly—new ice cream bars at lunch . . . Mar. 27—Musical comedy "The Belle of Barcelona" with Dot Gilmore and Bob Brown in the leads—and Don Earle as the red-headed Irishman, begorra . . . Mar. 30—Pete has the measles—after placing first in the district senior scholar-game—baseball team taking quite a few cracks—literally . . . Apr. 20—Mitchell and Heisel collided in a sockball game at Mound Park and Mitchell got the worst of it—minues 2 teeth, a smattering of blood, and a week of school . . . Apr. 21—Started out a warm day and so no coats—by 3:00 it was raining a cold rain . . . Apr. 22—Don Earle climaxed the Sr. play picture at Harris' by sticking his foot thru' the glass of the door! . . . Apr. 22—Kiwanis Assembly—planning of career books (note:—found that Serey's car starts without keys—hum'm!) . . . Apr. 23—Marionette show "The Glowing Bird"—"I'm a big, br-r-rave bear-rr! Baseball game with New Boston and we won 6 to sumpin' . . . Apr. 24—Representative from Miami U. put on a program in 220—Cunningham & Fritz go to Columbus for the week-end . . . Apr. 27—Boys being very attentive to girls—G. A. C. dance coming—ain't these lovely days for ringing doorbells? . . . Apr. 28—Mary Alice Suter, well-known sophomore and cheerleader, died last night after a short illness. The entire school was saddened by the news . . . Apr. 29—Annual class getting right energetic . . . Apr. 30—Gym Demonstration—every time Coach Hopkins would hold out his a hand for a ticket some one would shake hands with him . . . May 1—More Gym Demonstration—later a DeMolay. (completed on page 130).

May 4—P. H. S. rated 4th place in the scholarships at Athens, Saturday—and Athens beat us by one mere point—gr-r-r! . . . May 5—Evening play practices begin—the Gracie Meyer fell for a U. M. I. football star while at Lynchburg . . . May 6—Sara Ann got her nose burnt smelling H_2SO_4 , Dave Morris stirred some lye with his finger, and Mr. Robinson cut off 2 digits in the planer . . . May 7—The telephone rang in 303 and all the sleeping students were abruptly awakened—(The truth hurts! note K. K.) Trojan tryouts for next year . . . May 8—G. A. C. banquet and dance (and was it ever keen!)—also circus day—kids hung outa front windows 4th period to see the horseys, etc. . . . May 11—Besides being the last week of the next to the last month a street fair followed the circus at the stadium—had the "Streets of Paris" in it—ah! . . . May 12—Election day—which doesn't interest us—but to go on—someone always brings something to play practice to eat—business! . . . May 13—Teachers start to give daily tests—tuff on the guy who spends his evenings other places than home studying—No?—My eyes hurt from looking at the boys' new shirts—such modest red, blue, and yellow plaids! . . . May 14—Civitan Club Assembly—Bert Wittenburg was presented with a cup for the highest average and Charles Dailey with one for best civics student and another for best history student—band also presented various contest pieces—and we sailed the river blue (brown) on the steamer Washington—much shoving! . . . May 15—The P. H. S. (Peebles, Hitchcock, Schuyler) dance—with Sunset Royal—and were they hot—ah-h me!—m' feet hurt! . . . May 18—Everybody goin' swimmin' and stickin' to seats—gee! it's awful hot! . . . May 19—Seniors are sockball champions—will there ever be another class like us (no cracks, pleze!)—and the tennis teams are up and coming—It's between Bert and Benner for the girls' champ . . . May 20—Sr. play dress rehearsal—"Have you got your graduation clothes, yet?" "Yes, have you—blah! blah! blah!"—and so it goes . . . May 21—"Through the Keyhole"—the Sr. Play—counted 75 laffs in the first act—got too interested to count from there on . . . May 22—Grades close for seniors (but we're not 'sposed to know it)—Seniors again present their lil brainstorm (the play, goof) for the gaping public—went over big, too! . . . May 23—Benner's girls' tennis champ . . . May 29—Hurrah! The very last day of school for all good seniors. But we'll be back next year, gazing longingly (?) in class rooms . . . Junior-Senior Prom—held in the first floor ball room of the Gallia-Waller. Proud parents beamed from the mezzanine upon senior guests and junior hosts, all dolled up in furbelows, flowers, and flannels. Keen music by Shinnny Harrington's Kentucky Colonels—Should have been Admirals, 'cause everything was very nautical—flags waving, gang plank—anchors aweigh! . . . May 31—Baccalaureate at the U. S. Grant gym, with Rev. Rowand as the speaker. All the girls in pastel dresses, no hats, and the boys in their best duds—probably would have been more comfortable in bathing suits! . . . June 2—Senior picnic at Selco—ask anyone! . . . June 4—Commencement at Grant gym—Dr. Charles W. Guilkey, the speaker. All the "sweet girl grads" in white tailored (more or less) dresses, and the "brave boy dittos" in white and dark outfits . . . Cotillion follows as a celebration—or sumpin' . . . June 5—Alumni banquet and dance—and our Hi-School days are over forever. Let's all go home and read our Trojans, if we can see thru the scads of autographs. All our grand senior advisors got comp copies presented by Pete. They surely deserve them. . . . We've picked all our Daysies now—they wouldn't tell, so we had to!
